

How to use your Board Self-Evaluation Results

When?

The board should schedule a special open-session conversation/discussion meeting to review the results of this survey.

Guide to the Report

The report provides the board with perception data - how trustees individually perceive the board's effectiveness. The range of scores across topics will help the board identify areas in which board members might achieve greater collective clarity in fulfilling their governance responsibilities. The results are color-coded for ease of interpretation.

Color	Distribution of Ratings	Implications
	All board members rated this item as Almost Always or Often	A strength for all members
	A majority of board member rated these items as Almost Always or Often	A strength for majority of members
	A majority of board member rated these items as Less Often or Rarely	An area of growth for majority of members
	All board members rated this item as Less Often or Rarely	An area of growth for all members

The board can improve its cohesiveness by discussing the range of responses, learning each member's rationale for his/her ratings. In some cases, the board may find that members have different expectations for what deserves an 'Almost always' vs. an 'often', but that there is general agreement on how the board is performing.

How to structure the board conversation

As the board discusses these results, remember a few critical points:

- The report displays a range of perceptions, not facts.
- Focus your discussion on what matters most.
- Each member should practice empathetic listening and work to understand the views of other board members.
- It's okay to differ in opinion; you don't always need to agree, but you do need to understand.

Step 1: Confirm the strengths. (Green)

Step 2: Confirm the areas for growth. (Red)

Step 3: Identify areas where perceptions are mixed. (Blue or Yellow)

Step 4: Focus.

From the results from steps 2 and 3 above, the board should agree on the three to five most important areas for improving board performance. The board should answer the question:
Which areas of improvement will be most beneficial to the board and the district?

Step 5: Set goals.

Set specific, measurable, time-bound goals with success indicators for improving board performance in each area.

Step 6: Schedule board development workshops throughout the year and add them to your Governance Calendar.
